

SPRING TERM NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents

The end of term is fast approaching and what a fantastic time we have all had. Thank you to all my students who continue to surprise me every week with their Creativity and imagination, we really do have the best time.

This term saw one of our students, Seattle, attend his first professional audition and guess what? He got the part!! Well done Seattle on your first commercial. It didn't stop there as three more students were involved in filming a series of 'shorts' for a charity company called 'Parentalk'. Well done to Ellie, Abby & Ollie for being so professional and completely natural in front of the camera. A wonderful learning experience for them especially as they were allowed to call 'Action' and use the Clapper board!

Watching Week

Health & Safety

In the interest of health & safety can I please remind parents and students that the waiting area must be treated with the same respect as our own property. The chairs are for sitting on and the tables for putting things on. Please do not climb and jump on and off them as this has resulted in a child being injured. If you are waiting for your class to begin then can I ask you to wait calmly. The church very kindly allows me to use the common room as a waiting area at no extra cost and should anything become damaged during my class times then they may take away that privilege. Please also take care not to drop food on the carpet and dispose of all rubbish in the bin provided. Many thanks for your cooperation and continued support.

Other News

Most of you know Scott, who used to help in class. Well, if you fancy watching a new drama, he will be in episode 2 of The Widower coming soon to ITV. It stars Reece Shearsmith, Sheridan Smith and John Hannah.

If any of my older students would like some work experience then I am looking for a helper with my Mon/Thursday 4.15 classes.

Very best wishes & happy Easter to you all. See you next term!

Nikki xx
